

Northland Foundation welcomes Melissa King, accountant, to its staff team

(August 1, 2023)

The Northland Foundation is pleased to announce that Melissa King has joined the organization as an accountant.

King not only has extensive managerial accounting background but also specific experience in the nonprofit realm. Most recently, she served as the Accounting and Finance Manager at Second Harvest Northern Lakes Food Bank in Duluth.

She holds a bachelor's degree in accounting and a master's degree in business administration, both from The College of St. Scholastica.

“As the Northland Foundation evolves with new and expanding programs supported by an increasingly complex mix of public and private funding sources, the demands on our staff have grown, stated Tony Sertich, president.

Added Sertich: “Melissa adds even more depth to our expert finance team and will help ensure Northland continues its solid track record of transparency and stewardship.”

The Northland Foundation was created in 1986 and makes grants, small business loans, and implements programs in a region of seven northeast Minnesota counties and all or parts of five Native nations. Learn more at www.northlandfdn.org.

-end-